On hearing it, many of his disciples said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?" (John 6:60)

[Jesus] told stories whose many dimensions cracked open the worldview of his hearers and forced them to come to terms with God's reality breaking in to their midst, doing what they had always longed for, but doing it in ways that were so startling as to be hardly recognizable.
(N.T. Wright, The Challenge of Jesus)

• ... To _____ Us To _____
_____.

[Jesus] insists he alone can provide the real drink, the satisfying Spirit ... what the Old Testament texts were really anticipating was the gift of the Holy Spirit. Water sometimes served as a symbol for the Holy Spirit.
