_____.

The image one has of oneself, for example, can override everything else and cause one to act in ways contrary to all reality and good sense.

Four Key Principles

1) _____ ...

Is _____.

Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again."

(John 3:3)

For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

(1 Peter 1:23)

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.

(1 John 5:1)

If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

(2 Corinthians 5:17)

He saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

(Titus 3:5)

He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

(Philippians 1:6)

2) _____ . . . Is For _____.

Don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. (Romans 6:3-4)

3) _____ . . . Is _____.

You died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

(Colossians 3:3-4)

It is a serious thing to live in a society of possible gods and goddesses, to remember that the dullest most uninteresting person you can talk to may one day be a creature which, if you saw it now, you would be strongly tempted to worship, or else a horror and a corruption such as you now meet, if at all, only in a nightmare. All day long we are, in some degree helping each other to one or the other of these destinations. . . . There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilizations—these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit—immortal horrors or everlasting splendors.

(C.S. Lewis, The Weight of Glory)
