Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. (Romans 12:2)

My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. (John 17:15-17)

The Big Three

I appreciate Dallas Willard's kind but blunt definition of the world: "Our cultural and social practices, that are under the control of Satan and, thus, opposed to God."

(John Mark Comer, Live No Lies)

As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient. All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our flesh and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature deserving of wrath. (Ephesians 2:1-5)

The flesh is our inner propensity or inclination to do evil. . . .

The World is the unhealthy social environment in which we live. This includes the ungodly aspects of culture, peer pressure, values, traditions, "what is in," "what is uncool," customs, philosophies, and attitudes. The world represents the prevailing worldview assumptions of the day that stand contrary to the biblical understanding of reality and biblical values.

Our culture has a profound influence on the way we think and act. It provides us with a complete script for how we conduct our lives—what we do when we get sick, how we act toward the opposite sex, how we spend our money, what we pursue in life, what we think about people who are different from us, and so on.

The World

1) The _____ . . . Is A _____ .

Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them. For everything in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—comes not from the Father but from the world. (1 John 2:15-17)

You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God. (James 4:4)

2) The _____ . . . Is _____ Our _____ .

If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. . . . If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. (John 15:18-20)

I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. (John 17:14-16)
