Conflict & Community

1) _____ . . . _____
Ephesians 4:32/Colossians 3:12-3

They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. (Acts 15:39)

2) _____ . . . _____ .

Is it possible that there is nobody among you wise enough to judge a dispute between believers? (1 Corinthians 6:5)

If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that "every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses." If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector. (Matthew 18:15-17)

3) _____ . . . _____ .

Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, and you do this to your brothers and sisters. (1 Corinthians 6:7-8)

Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else. (1 Thessalonians 5:15)

Do not repay anyone evil for evil. . . . If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my dear friends, . . . Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (Romans 12:17-19, 21)
