

Disciple

One Key Question

⇒ _____ You _____ ... In _____?

To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."
(John 8:31-32)

Knowing the "right answers" ... does not mean we believe them. To believe them, like believing anything else, means that we are set to act as if they (the right answers) are true. ...

The idea that you can trust Christ and not intend to obey him is an illusion generated by the prevalence of an unbelieving "Christian culture." In fact, you can no more trust Jesus and not intend to obey him than you could trust your doctor and your auto mechanic and not intend to follow their advice. If you don't intend to follow their advice, you simply don't trust them. Period. ...

Perhaps the hardest thing for sincere Christians to come to grips with is the level of real unbelief in their own life.
