Jesus: The Model

Mark 10:35-37, 42-45

“Do you understand what I was doing? You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are right, because that’s what I am. And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet. I have given you an example to follow. (John 13:12-15, NLT)

Matthew 22:36-40

It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ...so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist.

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. (John 13:34–35)

2) _____ . . . Is _____ Of Our _____ .

Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (Mark 10:43-45)

Great occasions for serving God come seldom, but little ones surround us daily; and our Lord Himself has told us that "he that is faithful in little is also faithful in much." If you do all in God's Name, all you do will be well done, whether you eat, drink, sleep, whether you amuse yourself or turn the spit, so long as you do all wisely, you will become great in God's Sight doing all because He would have you do it. (St. Frances de Sales, Introduction to the Devout Life)

I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know: the only ones among you who will be truly happy are those who have sought and found how to serve. (Albert Schweitzer)
