The Problem With Prayer

- Prayer Is Not Supposed To Be “ _____ - _____.”

- Prayer Is Meant To Be _____.

Prayer is not a place to be good. ... It is a place to be honest. ... Somewhere along the way I had come to think God was interested only in things that were good, religious, clean, moral, and tidy. Therefore, I wanted to be good in prayer and good at prayer. The lie we are tempted to believe and perpetuate in our prayers is that God is interested in only well-kept sorts of things rather than the truth.
